LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—W. T. Overby bought of James Ferguson, 20,000 pounds of tobacco, at 10 cents straight.

—Dr. J. T. Ware, of Cynthiana, sold to Nichols, of Lexington, a fancy New York gait mare, for $500.

—J. L. Anderson, of Leesburg, sold to B. F. Buckley, of Centerville, a nice 3-year-old gelding, for $125.

—It is estimated that 2,000 mules and horses will be shipped from Hardin county during the season.

—J. E. Boardman, of Little Rock, sold to U. S. G. Pepper 14 75-pound shoats at 3 cents, and 3 900-pound steers at 4 cents.

—According to the latest report of the Secretary of Agriculture there are 16,557,373 horses in the United States, the value of which is estimated at $1,030,705,350.

—Kentucky formerly couldn't be excelled as an apple producing State, but for some years past it has been falling, until now it seems to have no rank in this line. Missouri is a great apple producer, but the fruit, so said by former Kentuckians, now of that State, doesn't compare in taste with that they used to get here.

The Town Board of Trustees, of Jackson, has decided to grant as many as three saloon licenses within the corporate limits. The anti-saloon advocates threaten an injunction.

Democratic leaders in Washington are giving Mr. Bryan some plain talk, telling him he has had his chance twice and should not attempt further to dictate to the party.

Sam Baughman, a negro, was detected in the act of blowing open the safe in the Louisville & Nashville ticket office at Lexington and was shot at by the agent. He was captured and lodged in jail.

Lewis Radford, a negro charged with murdering a negro woman at Guthrie, Saturday night, was lynched by a mob of his own race Sunday night. The mob shot Radford to pieces in jail, hanged his body to a tree and quietly dispersed. The body of the murdered woman was found on the roadside early yesterday morning.

SIMPLY BREATHE IT

A Few Minutes Use of Hyomei
Four Times a Day Cures
Catarrh.

The pleasantest, most convenient and the only scientific method for the treatment and cure of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe it a few minutes four times a day.

It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect a cure, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the head and throat and goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh and soothes and allays all irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement and in a short time there will be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit costs $1.00, and if after using you can say that it is not helped you Clarke & Co. will return your money.

What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this?

THE MINE WORKERS.

They Will Petition Congress to Remove Tribal Tax.

Motion Providing That All Wage Contracts Throughout the District of the United States Expire April 1 Each Year Taken Up.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—In the convention of the United Mine Workers of America Thursday a resolution proposing to petition congress to remove the tribal tax in Indian territory was carried without dissent.

The resolution providing that all wage contracts throughout the districts of the United States expire on April 1 of each year, was taken up again Thursday afternoon and referred to the national executive board.

A resolution providing for the creation of mine inspectors to be selected by a vote of the United Mine Workers of America was adopted.

The resolution providing for a levy of 25 cents per month for the maintenance of strikes now in progress throughout the United States was referred to the national executive board, with power to levy assessment without limitation.

A resolution to strike out the differential between pick and machine mined coal was referred to the constitution committee.

A resolution to tender the official and moral support of the national organization to an Italian trade journal published at Trinidad, Col., was defeated upon recommendation of the committee, after a prolonged discussion.

The scale committee have made rapid progress, but their report will not be ready before the first of next week.

Delegates from Indiana are asking ten per cent. increase on a run of mine basis, some contending that a run of mine basis should be at least two-thirds what it is for screen.

Illinois miners are asking a slight advance for both indoor and outdoor men.

Pittsburg district delegates are asking an increase of ten cents.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—At the afternoon session of the miners' convention the committee on officers' reports reported a concurrence in President Mitchell's recommendation that the organization endeavor to secure legislation prohibiting the employment of boys in mines under 16 years of age.

An amendment was offered extending the employment of boys "in and around mines." President Mitchell vigorously contested this amendment, because of his belief that the resolution might be deemed too stringent by the legislators and be declared unconstitutional. The amendment was defeated by a rising vote and the committee report was adopted.

A Journey of Three-Fourths of a Mile Over Ice Floes.

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 22.—Three men risked their lives in making a journey of three-quarters of a mile over the ice floes Thursday in order to furnish aid and provisions to the crew of six men on the tug Engal, which is held tightly in the ice floes just outside the harbor. The volunteers were Alderman Thomas Mader and Louis and Fred Joerndt. They carried four baskets of provisions. Several times they were stopped by the breaking of the ice, and they were forced to jump from one floe to another. They finally got within a few yards of the tug, and the provisions were hauled over the side by means of ropes. The men on board were almost famished from hunger.

RISKED THEIR LIVES.

A Journey of Three-Fourths of a Mile Over Ice Floes.

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 22.—Three men risked their lives in making a journey of three-quarters of a mile over the ice floes Thursday in order to furnish aid and provisions to the crew of six men on the tug Engal, which is held tightly in the ice floes just outside the harbor. The volunteers were Alderman Thomas Mader and Louis and Fred Joerndt. They carried four baskets of provisions. Several times they were stopped by the breaking of the ice, and they were forced to jump from one floe to another. They finally got within a few yards of the tug, and the provisions were hauled over the side by means of ropes. The men on board were almost famished from hunger.

A LAKE OF OIL.

It Was Tapped Three Miles South of Florence, Col.

Florence, Col., Jan. 22.—The first lake of oil ever discovered in Colorado has been tapped while drilling Well No. 312 at Spindle Top Heights, three miles south of Florence. The oil body was encountered at a depth of 2,775 feet, and the well will, it is believed, produce more than any six wells in the field. The oil in the new well is said to have risen within a few hundred feet of the surface.

To Divide the Lands.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Representative Thayne, of Massachusetts, introduced by request an amendment to the constitution providing that the lands of the United States shall be so divided as to give each citizen of the country eight acres in as nearly a square piece as possible.

Now They Plead Guilty.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 22.—Ex-Alderman James O. McCool pleaded guilty to the charge of accepting a bribe from Lant K. Salsbury for aiding the water deal. Ex-City Clerk Isaac P. Lamoreaux also changed his plea to guilty. He was charged with conspiracy in the deal.

Two Dead, One Dying.

Benton, Tenn., Jan. 23.—Three men, surnamed Baxter, ate the livers of hogs and as a result two are dead and the other is not expected to live. The hog cholera is prevalent in the neighborhood and it is believed Baxter's hogs were diseased.

Meets in Philadelphia Next Year.

Columbus, O., Jan. 23.—The Custom Cutters Association of America concluded its session Friday and adjourned to meet next year at Philadelphia. There was a spirited contest for officers.

RUSSIA STILL FIRM.

Manchuria Must Remain Amenable to Russian Influence.

London, Jan. 22.—A statement published in London Friday morning with an air of authority to the effect that the question of a neutral zone has disappeared from the Russo-Japanese negotiations. Although it is impossible to confirm this statement, it agrees with other inspired statements that Russia has acquiesced to Japan's views regarding the integrity of Corea and that the only trouble now remaining relates to Manchuria.

With references to the ordinances adopted by the Japanese privy council at the meeting of January 20, this statement explains that Russian men-of-war have had free access all along, even to the Japanese ports of Nagasaki and Hakodate for coaling and other purposes; Japan, therefore, has taken precautionary measures looking to the possible necessity of putting a stop to such visits.

It is stated that Japan's domestic loan will amount to $50,000,000 and that her ordinary disbursements already amount to $16,000,000.

Special dispatches from St. Petersburg to the Daily Telegraph and the Daily Mail assert that Russia's reply to the latest Japanese note was drawn up at a ministerial council held Wednesday at which the czar presided.

The tenor of this reply is courteous but firm and it was approved without a dissenting voice by the ministers, including M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers. Nothing has been given out officially concerning this reply but it is understood, according to the messages from St. Petersburg, that Russia maintains that Manchuria must remain amenable, politically and strategically to Russian influence, the concessions made being only of a commercial character.

HEIR TO COREAN THRONE.

The Whereabouts of Prince Euiwha Is Zealously Guarded.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The Korean minister at Washington and his staff are guarding zealously the whereabouts of Prince Euiwha, who, according to a report will replace his father on the throne in the event the Korean emperor is dethroned. The minister informed a press representative that the prince's movements necessarily were confidential for the present.

It is learned, however, from an attaché of the legation that the prince was expected in Washington this month, but has not yet arrived. He had trouble last year at Delaware, O., where he was attending college, and left there some time ago. It was said Thursday night that the prince was in New York incognito not long ago. At the legation there is considerable excitement over the events in Corea. What effect the crisis there will have on the movements of the minister and his staff is not certain, but it was hinted at the legation Thursday night that some of the legation personnel, if not all of them, were prepared to leave Washington on short notice.

SMALL SLAUGHTER HOUSES.

A Number in Kansas City, Kan., May Have to Suspend Operations.

Kansas City, Jan. 22.—A number of small independent slaughter houses in Kansas City, Kan., will be forced to suspend operations unless they are able to secure government inspection of their meats. The owners of several independent concerns have been notified by James W. Strode, inspector of meats, this city, that they will no longer be permitted to sell their products in Missouri unless their meats bear the stamp of government approval. Already two slaughter houses have closed their doors because their meat is not inspected by the government.

AIRSHIP EXPERIMENTS.

War Department Asked to Detail Amount of Money Expended.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The war department is asked to detail to the house the amount and source of money it has expended in the promotion of flying machine experiments in a resolution introduced Thursday by Representative Hitchcock, of Nebraska. The resolution applies to such experiments and construction whether under the direction of Prof. S. P. Langley or otherwise. The resolution was referred to the appropriation committee.

Collections of Revenues.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that the total collections for December, 1903, were $20,577,790, a decrease for the month of $166,061. For the six months of the present fiscal year the receipts exceeded those for the corresponding period last year by $2,554,065.

Dowie Sails For Australia.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—John Alexander Dowie, with his party from the east, sailed for Australia on the Sonoma Thursday. While in this city he delivered two addresses, but was coldly received on both occasions.

Relief of Tobacco Growers.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house committee on ways and means will grant a hearing February 4 on several pending bills for the relief of tobacco growers. The general proposition is to remit the customs tax on growers who stem and twist their own tobacco.

Oom Paul Kruger Failing.

Birmingham, Eng., Jan. 22.—The Post Thursday quotes a friend of Oom Paul Kruger as stating that the former president of the Transvaal shows signs of a progressive decline. His disposition for exercise is increasing.

SWEEPED BY A TORNADO.

Thirty-Seven Persons Killed and Over a Hundred Injured.

Bedding, Carpets and Wearing Apparel Are Scattered For a Distance of Ten Miles Through What Was Previously Forest.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Jan. 23.—A disastrous tornado swept over Moundville, Ala., a town of 300 inhabitants, 15 miles south of Tuscaloosa, early Friday, and as a result 37 persons were killed and more than one hundred injured. Every business house with the exception of a small drug store was completely destroyed.

The tornado struck the city from the southwest and mowed a path a quarter of a mile wide through the town.

Surgeons were rushed to Moundville from Greensboro and Tuscaloosa and all possible was done to alleviate the sufferings of the injured. By the force of the storm persons were blown hundreds of feet from their beds in the blackness of night. Through terror a father, mother and three children fled from their home to seek refuge, and in their excitement left a 5-year-old boy in bed. Friday he was pulled out from beneath some timber and thus far it is impossible to find any other member of the family.

Bedding, carpets and wearing apparel are scattered for a distance of ten miles through what was a forest, but which is now as clear as if though cut by the woodman's ax.

Freight cars were torn to splinters, the trucks from them being hurled hundreds of feet from the track.

The depot, the hotel, warehouses, gins, 30 houses, the store houses occupied by R. L. Griffin, A. W. Wiggins & Son, J. W. Dornick, A. D. Griffin and W. P. Phifer, together with their stocks, were completely destroyed. Where they stood it is impossible to find even the pillars upon which these structures rested.

Bales of cotton which were stored in warehouses were torn to atoms, the fragments of lint lodging in trees, making it appear as though that section had been visited by a snow storm. Heavy iron safes, the doors of which in some instances were torn from their hinges, were carried away by the force of the wind.

A young clerk employed by W. P. Phifer, hearing the terrible roaring of the storm, let himself into a well in the center of the store. He had no sooner found his place of safety when the store was completely demolished. He was drawn out uninjured.

E. P. Seymour, of Nashville, Tenn., among the killed, had accepted his position as operator at the railroad station Thursday evening.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Jan. 23.—The town of Hull, four miles north of Moundville, suffered from the tornado. The Bates Lumber Co.'s planing department was completely wrecked and the Negro fireman crushed. Four residences and one church were demolished.

MINISTER TO PANAMA.

Mr. Buchanan Is About to Return to the United States.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Confirmation is had at the state department of the report that Mr. Buchanan, American minister to Panama, is about to return to the United States, starting in a few days from Colon. Important private business is assigned as a reason for the minister's return. The department is not informed that his visit is anything more than a mere leave of absence, but it knows that Buchanan consented to assume the Panama mission only on an understanding that his appointment must be temporary, and as affairs on the isthmus are regarded as being in excellent shape from an administrative standpoint, it is possible that he will consider that he has carried his full undertaking when he returns to Washington.

THE EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES.

All the Cases Against Frank Siegel Were Dismissed.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 23.—All the cases against Frank Siegel, former president of the defunct Siegel-Sanders Live Stock Commission Co., who was charged with embezzlement on seven indictments, were dismissed by the prosecuting attorney here Friday.

The prosecutor stated that as one of the cases against Siegel had been dismissed, there was no chance of convicting him on the others. The charges were instigated by Frank Rockefeller, a brother of John D. Rockefeller, who lost nearly $250,000 in the failure of the firm two years ago.

Week's Business Failures.

New York, Jan. 23.—Business failures in the United States for the week ending January 21 number 266, against 315 last week, 253 in the like week in 1903, 292 in 1902, 281 in 1901. In Canada failures number 25, which compare with 39 last week.

Joe Grim Won the Purse.

Baltimore, Jan. 23.—Joe Grim, of Philadelphia, won the purse hung up by the Eureka Athletic and Social club in a ten-round bout Friday night, and an additional $100 from Gans, who thought he could put Grim out in six rounds.

Musicale at the White House.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The third of the series of evening musicales given this season by Mrs. Roosevelt took place at the white house Friday night before a large gathering. The program included piano and vocal solos.

PITTSBURGH FLOOD SUBSIDING.

Two Towboats and Two Boat Houses Destroyed By Fire.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 25.—The flood of Saturday has in a great measure passed this point, but portions of the two cities are still submerged and will not be freed from the water until after midnight.

In Allegheny the gas supply was erratic and the distribution of coal by the city authorities in the poorer neighborhoods brought out riotous conditions. When the fuel was dumped in the streets men, women and children fought for it, requiring a strong guard of police to restore order.

Wreckage and huge cakes of ice strewn the streets. A thick settlement of slimy mud, mingled with ice, makes many districts unfit to walk through. Huge timbers, portions of doors, stairways, barrels, boxes, cans and other debris washed upon the streets by the flood, have rested where the water left them.

The big coal companies have been busy all day preparing their fleets for coal shipments to the south. There are 30 towboats in the harbor ready to start and it is estimated that fully 10,000,000 bushels of coal will have started by Monday noon.

Much excitement was caused by a fire Sunday which destroyed the Hackett Elizabeth, the towboat Olivette and two boat houses. The Elizabeth was set adrift and in passing under the Union bridge set fire to that structure. This fire, however, was soon controlled.

The burning hulk of the Elizabeth continued down the Ohio until she sank a mile or so below. The loss will not exceed $25,000.

A FLOOD AT WHEELING.

One-Third of the Homes Are Partially or Wholly Inundated.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 25.—The crest of the flood swell was reached at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the stage was 44 feet 2 inches. Fully one-third of the homes in the city were wholly or partially inundated and the sharp fall in temperature has caused a great deal of suffering. On the island very few streets are out of the water, and many second stories are invaded.

Word reached here Sunday evening that Joe Cutler and Charles Reynolds, who cut loose in a light barge from the steamer Lizzie Townsend when that boat burned Saturday, were picked up about Matamoras. The towboat Sam Brown sighted the craft at Sistersville and heard the cries of the men for help. The steamer gave chase for five miles, and finally overhauled the barge, and took the two men off more dead than alive. In Benwood there is not a single block that is high and dry, and the 5,000 people there are living in second stories or on the hill-sides.

THE OHIO RIVER.

Navigation Opened in Part After a Long Suspension.

Cincinnati, Jan. 25.—With the arrival here of the steamer Courier, Sunday night, navigation was opened in part of the Ohio river after a complete suspension of almost two months. During that time seven large packets and a dozen smaller ones and hundreds of coal barges have been anchored here. Two small packets were wrecked by the breaking of ice gorges and the number of barges lost will never be known. The total direct loss is placed at $200,000. The indirect loss is much greater. It is stated that the loss of one of the large packets by being laid up is $1,000 per day. The river is open for navigation now only between Louisville and Maysville, Ky., so that none of the through packets up the river for Pittsburg or down the river for Mississippi points are yet able to run on account of the ice. While freezing weather again prevails through the Ohio valley the river is now too high to be again closed up.

THE ICE GAVE WAY.

Towboat and Barge of Coal Sunk—Three Men Are Missing.

Cincinnati, Jan. 25.—The ice around Coney Island gave way Sunday night and sunk the towboat Adelle at Brown's landing, east of this city, together with a barge of coal. Loss $15,000. Three men, employed on the Adelle, whose names could not be learned, are missing and supposed to have been drowned. The river has been rising rapidly here since Sunday midnight.

Crushed to Death By An Elephant.

London, Jan. 25.—George Lockhart, well-known elephant trainer and circus proprietor, was accidentally crushed to death by an elephant while he was attending to the unloading of circus animals at the railroad station at Walthamstow.

Excitement in a Theater.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—During the performance at the Deutsches theater, the fall of a portion of the ceiling of the corridor caused great excitement. With the exception of an usher, who was slightly hurt, no one was injured.

The Mayflower Leaves For Norfolk.

Colon, Jan. 25.—The United States steamer Mayflower, Capt. Albert Cleaves, left here for Norfolk, Va., Sunday morning. The flagship Olympia and the torpedo boat destroyer Truxton are at present the only American warships in the harbor.

Munroe-Sharkey Bout.

New York, Jan. 25.—Jack Munroe and Tom Sharkey have decided to accept the offer of the National Athletic club, at Philadelphia, and will box before that organization next month. The bout will be for six rounds.

A Dentist's Advice.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 25th.—Mr. Harry L. Lewis, Dentist, 607 Summit street, this city, says: "I certainly advise anyone no matter how severe they may have Kidney Trouble, to take Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"I was troubled with Kidney Disease for several years and Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me. I had used many so-called remedies without any benefit. Four months ago, I was flat on my back with this painful trouble, and must say that I almost gave up hopes of ever getting any better. Through a friend's advice I purchased six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"At first I could see but little benefit, but after two weeks, I could see an improvement. I had been getting up several times at night and pains in my back were very severe. When I had taken six boxes I felt better than I had for years. The pain had all gone and I didn't have to get up during the night at all. I continued the treatment until I had used several more boxes, and now I am glad to say that I am completely cured."

On Pneumatic Casters.

The rapid multiplication of motor-carriages has created a demand for experienced drivers or chauffeurs, and schools of training have been established to fit men for receiving the license which the law requires.

An automobile expert in charge of one of these schools says that an applicant recently entered and approached him. "I want to take lessons," he said, "to fit myself to be a chauffeur."

The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture gives to Salzer's Oats its heartiest endorsement. Salzer's New National Oats yielded in 1903 from 150 to 300 bu. per acre in 30 different States, and you, Mr. Farmer, can beat this in 1904, if you will.

Salzer's seeds are pedigree seeds, bred up through careful selection to big yields. Per Acre. Salzer's Beardless Barley yielded 121 bu. Salzer's Home Builder Corn... 330 bu. Salzer's Seltz and Macaroni Wheat... 80 bu. Salzer's Victoria Rape... 60,000 lbs. Salzer's Teosinte, the fodder wonder... 160,000 lbs. Salzer's Billion Dollar Grass... 50,000 lbs. Salzer's Pedigree Potatoes... 1,000 bu. Now such yields pay and you can have them, Mr. Farmer, in 1904.

SEND 10c IN STAMPS and this notice to the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., and you will get their big catalog and lots of farm seed samples free. [K. L.]

Every woman feels that she ought to be the boss.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was poor, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."—Mrs. M. E. HUGHSON, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.—$5.00 per bottle. Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was poor, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Body of a School Teacher Found at Bedford, Ind.

There Is Evidence of Foul Play—Wisp of Mustache Hair Discovered Clutched in Victim's Hand May Give a Clue.

Bedford, Ind., Jan. 23.—The dead body of Sarah Schaeffer, Latin teacher at the high school, was found Friday morning by William Cook and his son-in-law, John Hendricks. Cook is a cabman and found the woman when he went to get his cab out of the shed. She was lying under the cab, and the earth around showed signs of a struggle for life. The body was well dressed. The face of the woman was lacerated, and her whole body was covered with mud and blood. The shed floor was a pool of blood. The woman's body, when found, was cold and stiff. The shed is located within 50 feet of the street.

Miss Schaeffer was from Elkhart, Ind. The whole affair is wrapped in mystery.

It has developed that a wisp of mustache hair was found in the clutches of the victim and upon this clued the police and a number of private detectives are basing their investigation. Miss Schaeffer's umbrella was found open in a barn lot near the shed. A brick with which the wounds were inflicted has also been found covered with blood.

A Negro was said to have been seen near the alley where the assault was committed about the time that Miss Schaeffer left her boarding house.

Bloodhounds have been given the scent, but could follow it not more than 50 yards from the place where the body was found. A whisky bottle coming from a saloon in the city was found about 50 feet from the shed.

Evidence that Miss Schaeffer, the murdered girl, received two anonymous letters threatening her with punishment if she did not change her boarding place from the home of Dr. D. D. Nicholson has been disclosed. Miss Schaeffer subsequently changed her residence for fear that the threat might be carried out.

A dragnet is to be instituted throughout the surrounding country and all suspicious characters will be compelled to prove their whereabouts on the night of the murder.

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 25.—A red-haired man was arrested by the police here Sunday and is being held awaiting instructions from the Bedford authorities. When found the suspected man was in a schoolhouse with another man taller than himself. The police suspecting robbery, approached, and the taller man fled. The man with the red hair, however, stood his ground, and drawing a revolver, flourished it at Chief Johns, who, with Officer Hugh Hinkle, was making the arrest. They approached him and he offered no further resistance.

He gave his name as Tom Boyd, but declined to state anything about himself. He was told that he was suspected of the Bedford murder, but refused to say anything.

STARVED TO DEATH.

Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., New York, Died in the Wilds of Labrador.

Quebec, Jan. 23.—Word was received Friday night from Chateau Bay, Labrador, that a courier had arrived from Northwest river with the information that Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., of New York, had died of starvation in the wilds of Labrador on October 18. The remains are on their way to Quebec, so the report says, by dog train, which is expected to reach Chateau Bay some time in March.

New York, Jan. 23.—Mr. Hubbard, who was assistant editor of Outing, was sent out by that magazine to explore the interior of Labrador. In his party were Dillon Wallace, a New York lawyer, and two Cree Indians. The explorers left Rigolette about the beginning of July, 1903. Their object was to penetrate to the settlement of Nascauphes Indians, where, so far as known, no white man has ever been.

Memorial Services Held.

New York, Jan. 25.—Memorial services, under the direction of the Actors' Church Alliance of America, in sympathy with the sufferers and bereaved in the Iroquois theater fire in Chicago, were held at the Princess theater Sunday.

Philippine Trade Statistics.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The Philippine trade statistics of the insular bureau of the war department show that the imports of those islands during the eight months ended August, 1903, aggregated $22,266,581 and exports $20,800,233.

Expelled From the Press Association. St. Louis, Jan. 23.—The Missouri Press Association, in annual session, expelled former Lieut. Gov. John A. Lee and L. I. Page, editor of the Bonne Terre Star, because of their alleged connection with boodles scandals.

Colonists Arrive in Mexico.

Monterey, Mex., Jan. 25.—A party of Indian territory colonists reached here Sunday and will proceed to Las Palmas, on the line of the Mexican Central railroad, for the purpose of settling upon a tract of 50,000 acres of land.

Requests From Military Academies.

St. Louis, Jan. 25.—Requests are being received from military academies all over the United States as to accommodations for their organizations during the World's fair and for the assignment of the dates.

SEVERE WINTER WEATHER.

Cold Wave Extends Over the West and the North.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Extreme cold weather was recorded in various sections of the north and west Sunday. The cold wave extends over a wide area, embracing the Upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys and the western lake region. Particularly severe weather is reported in the Dakotas, Eastern Montana, Northeastern Nebraska, Northwestern Iowa, Northern Illinois and Indiana and portions of Wisconsin and Michigan.

The thermometer Sunday in this city registered 11 degrees below zero. There is suffering among the poor people and many of the homeless applied at the police stations for shelter. Only one death, that of a fisherman, has so far been reported. The weather bureau observer says that it is possible that the mercury may go to 20 below Monday and that the cold wave will last several days yet.

At St. Paul Sunday the minimum on the official thermometer was 23 degrees below zero. Other thermometers registered as low as 40. Bismarck reported 28 and Superior, Wis., 36. In a number of places in the northwest it was the coldest weather of the year. A severe blizzard raged at Houghton, Mich., trains being late and traffic badly impeded.

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 25.—With one exception Sunday was the coldest day since 1864. The government thermometer registered 37 degrees below zero early Sunday and at 8 o'clock Sunday night stood at 24 below. Forty-seven degrees below zero was reported at Ely, on the Vermillion range, Sunday morning, while towns on the Mesaba range reported from 35 to 45 below.

Sioux City, Ia., Jan. 25.—At 8 a. m. the government record of temperature was 21 below zero, and it has not been higher than 8 below all day.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 25.—The coldest weather of the winter was experienced in the entire northwest Sunday. Superior reported a maximum temperature of 36 degrees below zero, La Crosse 24 and Milwaukee 16. Only one case of suffering was on the police record, a man being found with his hands and feet frozen.

Burlington, Ia., Jan. 25.—The mercury fell to 8 degrees below zero Sunday evening, the second coldest night of the season. The cold is increasing.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 25.—Specials showed Wisconsin to have experienced the coldest weather Sunday night of any state in the union. New Richmond reported a maximum temperature of 45 degrees below zero; Hayward and Cumberland reports 40; Superior 36, and Unity 38 below. Other low temperatures are Black River Falls 32, Baraboo 31. Oshkosh reports the coldest weather in 25 years, the registration being 28 below. A strong northwest wind is blowing.

LYNCHING AT GUTHRIE, KY.

A Negro Hanged to a Limb of a Tree By a Colored Mob.

Guthrie, Ky., Jan. 25.—Lewis Radford, a Negro, was lynched here at 6 o'clock Sunday night by a mob of from 30 to 40 Negroes. Radford was arrested Sunday morning, accused of killing Priscilla Fozell, also a Negro, Saturday night. Radford was seen in company with the Fozell woman about 8 o'clock Saturday night, going in the direction of the Standard Oil Co.'s yards, at this place. Radford confessed to having been in the woman's company Saturday night and of assaulting her, but denied to the last the act of killing her.

Marshal Burries employed John Dock, colored, to feed the prisoner, and Sunday night while he was in the jail corridor a mob rushed in and demanded the keys to Radford's cell. Dock refused at first to deliver the keys. The mob then gave him several blows on the head and drew their pistols. The keys were promptly delivered. Radford refused to leave the cell, and the mob began firing upon him, several shots taking effect. In all eight shots were fired. The prisoner was dragged, half-dead, to a tree a few yards from the jail door and was hanged to a limb.

WENT SUDDENLY INSANE.

Killed His Sister, Declaring He Obeyed a Divine Behest.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Miss Hannah Hall, 30 years old, was murdered Sunday at her home in Vanburen by her brother, Isaac Hall, who gave himself up to the police. Hall, who is 33 years old, declares that he obeyed a Divine behest when he killed his sister. He attacked her while she was asleep, first shooting her, then dragging the wounded woman through the house, he cut her throat and finally placed her neck across a chopping block and completely severed the head from the body.

Hall and his sister lived alone, both parents being dead. Until this time Hall was considered a model farmer and his sister was a great favorite. Hall is religiously inclined and there is no doubt that he suddenly became insane.

Col. Arthur Lynch Liberated.

London, Jan. 25.—Col. Arthur Lynch, who commanded the Irish brigade of the British forces during the war in South Africa, and was afterward convicted of treason and sentenced to imprisonment for life, was liberated Sunday "on license."

Death of Chester Adkins.

Ripon, Wis., Jan. 25.—Chester Adkins, 82 years old, died Sunday. He was the last surviving member of the original 19 founders of the Wisconsin "Phalanx," a society which Horace Greely styled a model one.

A MOB OF COREANS.

Attacked Electric Car Owned by Americans.

The Car Was Partially Destroyed—Prompt Action of American Legion Guards Prevented Serious Riot—Situation Critical.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The state department Sunday received official information of attack Sunday by a mob of native Koreans on an electric car in Korea, the line being owned by Americans, because of the fact that it had killed a Korean. The news came in the following telegram, received under Sunday's date, from Minister Allen at Seoul:

"This morning on the electric railway, which is the property of American citizens, a Korean was accidentally and unavoidably killed. Thereupon a mob of natives attacked and partially destroyed the car. The operators of the car would have been injured had it not been for the presence of mind and action of our guard, and serious riot would have occurred."

Although there have been previous reports of disturbances in Korea this is the first mob attack made thus far on property of Americans. The railroad is owned and operated by Americans, H. R. Bostwick, of San Francisco, and H. Collbran being its principal officers. It runs through the heart of Seoul, the Korean capital.

The guard which made the rescue came from the American legation. It consists of 100 marines, who were sent there some time ago to be on hand for the protection of Americans and their property. Reinforcement of this guard has been urged and could be made in a week's time by details of marines from the Philippines, but nothing has been decided on this point. Conditions in Korea are recognized to be critical, and the state department is keeping in close touch with the situation.

No fresh instructions have been sent as yet as a result of Sunday's mob at Korea.

The Korean legation has received no advice concerning the matter. The Korean government has notified its legation here that it has issued a formal declaration of neutrality as between Russia and Japan in the event of war, and Minister Min-Hui-Cho has formally advised the state department of this action.

GOV. TAFT ARRIVES.

He Immediately Took a Train for Washington.

San Francisco, Jan. 25.—Former Gov. Taft, of the Philippines, arrived here on the steamer Korea. With him were Mrs. Taft, their two children, Fred Carpenter, his secretary, and Judge Wolff, attorney general of the Philippines, who is traveling with the governor's party on his way home on leave of absence.

The governor was met by a number of representative army and navy men and civil officials on the tug Golden Gate, to which the party was transferred after the Korea had reached the quarantine station. The tug carried its passengers to the Oakland mole, where Gov. Taft boarded the eastern overland train for Washington. On arriving at the capitol he will at once assume his duties as secretary of war.

THE BRITISH FLEET.

It Is in Readiness to Move Within Five Minutes' Notice.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 25.—According to officers of the Northern Pacific steamer Victoria, which arrived from the Orient Sunday, the British fleet at Hong-Kong is being kept in readiness to sail at a moment's notice. No sailor, they say, is allowed on shore leave over night; the ships are all coaled, and everything is in readiness for the entire fleet to move within five minutes after receipt of orders.

Walking Around the World.

Monte Carlo, Jan. 25.—George W. Schilling, who left Pittsburgh, Pa., in August, 1897, on a bet that he could walk around the world in seven years, arrived here Saturday. Schilling has previously been reported on his walking tour from Japan, India and South Africa.

Big Blaze in New York.

New York, Jan. 25.—The building, Nos. 546-548 Broadway, occupied by Morimura Bros., Japanese goods; R. E. Bonar & Co., hats, and Cranford & Quigley, Rossenwar Bros. and Finkelstein & Maaget, clothing, was destroyed by fire early Sunday. Estimated loss $250,000.

Corean Soldiers and Police as Robbers. Seoul, Jan. 25.—Corean soldiers and police at Pyengyang disguised as robbers have looted all the wealthy native houses. Foreigners are growing very uneasy over the condition of affairs. The natives seemingly are apathetic.

Almost Killed Its Keeper.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 25.—Maddened by the intense cold, which had frozen his ears and trunk, an elephant belonging to an animal show which had been exhibiting at a local theater, almost killed its keeper, Conrad Castens.

Ready For Exhibits.

St. Louis, Jan. 25.—The Louisiana exposition now stands ready and is waiting for the full and general installation of exhibits. The managers request that they be sent in as early as possible.

THE JUDGE AND THE LAWYERS

His Honor Was There with a Good Hard Knock When the Opportunity Offered.

The judge had had his patience sorely tried by lawyers who wished to talk and by men who tried to evade jury service. Between hypothetical questions and excuses it seemed as if they never would get to the actual trial of the case. So when the puzzled little German who had been accepted by both sides jumped up the judge was exasperated, relates El-Hott Flower, in the Brooklyn Eagle.

"Shudge!" cried the German. "What is it?" demanded the judge.

"I think I like to go home to my wife," said the German.

"You can't," retorted the judge. "Sit down."

"But, Shudge," persisted the German, "I don't think I make a good shuror."

"You're the best in the box," said the judge. "Sit down."

"What box?" asked the German. "The jury box," said the judge.

"Oh, I thought it was a bad box that peoples get in sometimes."

"No," said the judge; "the bad box is the prisoner's box."

"But, Shudge," persisted the little German, "I don't speak good English."

"You won't have to speak any at all," said the judge. "Sit down."

The little German pointed at the lawyers to make his last desperate plea.

"Shudge," he said, "I can't make nothings out of what those fellers say."

It was the judge's chance to get even for many annoyances.

"Neither can anyone else," he said. "Sit down."

With a sigh the little German sat down.

FEMININE FASHIONS.

Notes and Suggestions for Those Who Keep Pace with the Newest in Dress.

One of the new skating jackets is fashioned on the lines of a Norfolk jacket.

For sleighing or automobiling in frosty weather nothing is more correct and comfortable than one of the long fur coats.

A pretty high crush girdle is of chine Dresden lousine, with a deep cream ground.

From England comes the word that gray is to be the correct hunting color, but in this country individual taste will probably present a variety of shades.

The latest bonbon cases represent Oxford ties in porcelain imitating patent leather, white suede and waterproof leather.

A new species of sandals has appeared for bedroom use. These novelties, which come in red and other bright colors, go by the very descriptive appellation of "scuppers."

With ermine hats pale blue and a touch of gold seems the favorite combination, and with sable or mink the violet shades of flowers and heavy cream of laces are most used.

Leather has an important part to play in many of the winter costumes. There are revers and bandings of leather on many of the chic suits and coats. French modistes are producing entire coats of leather.

WHY WE SHOULD WORK.

It Is the Natural Thing to Do While on the Other Hand Idleness Is Unnatural.

Work is activity in some phase of our life. Life is manifested in activity, and inactivity would be stagnation which would be fatal to life, says the American Queen.

In the universe wherever there is life there is activity. This is true in the vegetable, the animal and the human worlds. This activity is a necessity which runs through all organic life. The life that is not crowned with ennobling work of some kind, either for one's own livelihood or for the good of others, is an empty life—an abnormal life.

Work is natural; idleness unnatural. Work builds up and inactivity tears down. Hence, it is unnatural.

There are manifold reasons why we should work and no reason why we should not. Those who are not obliged to labor for their daily bread should choose work of some kind in obedience to the universal law that we see running in all creation.

He who was of the opinion that "the man who does not work should not eat," realized the demoralizing influence of a life spent in idleness.

Hope and Cheerfulness.

Keep to the broad highways of Hope and Cheerfulness. Expect to succeed. Think success and you will succeed. Keep out of the back alleys of gloom and pessimism. Join the procession of the cheerful, the willing and the hopeful. Be sanguine. Know the pleasures of living. Enjoy the sunshine of hope. Beware of the encroachments of the carping, pessimistic spirit. It is a hardy plant. It takes root easily in the mind and, like the thistle, when once it gains a foothold it is well-nigh impossible to uproot. But it cannot live in an atmosphere of sunshine and cheerfulness. Therefore, keep to the highways. Keep out of the back alleys.—Chicago Daily News.

Chocolate Loaf Cake.

Half cup butter, one and a half cups sugar, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, fourth teaspoon salt, half cup milk, four eggs, four ounces chocolate dissolved in five tablespoons boiling water, one teaspoon vanilla. Mix flour, salt and baking powder; cream, butter and sugar; add egg yolks, vanilla and dissolved chocolate. Alternate the milk and flour and beat hard; add the whipped whites, turn into buttered loaf pan lined with three thicknesses of paper. Bake in a moderate oven.—Chicago Tribune.

NEBRASKA THE LAND OF PLENTY

I wonder why it is that so many men spend their days working hard on rented farms, barely making enough to get along, with no great prospect ahead of owning their own homes, when within a few hours' journey is a land of plenty—Nebraska—where all kinds of grain and fruit can be raised with the least amount of labor; where cattle and hogs fed on corn bring a handsome profit; where the climate is healthful and churches and schools abound; where land is cheap and can be bought on very easy terms.

Think of this, and if you want information about the country send to me for "The Corn Belt," a beautifully illustrated monthly paper that tells all about Nebraska, and also for "The West Nebraska Grazing Country," an interesting illustrated booklet containing a large sectional map of Nebraska.

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month during the balance of this year cheap excursion tickets will be sold over our road to Nebraska, so that people may go and see for themselves. Ask your ticket agent about this.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25¢; regular bottles, 75¢. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

It seems very much like we will have a new Capitol at Frankfort. Nothing but the best is too good for us.

This has certainly been the "winter of our discontent." But then we have the satisfaction of knowing that "it will be summer time by-and-by."

OUR merchants all look forward to a good trade in the Spring. If you want good bargains and be protected in your purchases, trade with our home merchants.

Now that the country has found out how old Ann really is, it might try to figure out how old she will be when the President sends a trust magnate to the penitentiary.

AMONG a number of bills introduced in the House at Frankfort last week, was one providing for the fine of those who fail to remove their headgear in a public meeting.

THE cry now seems to be: "Give us clean streets." Not only the Civic League asks for this, but the public at large. We cannot expect to have a healthy condition without cleanliness.

THERE is a probability that the Elks' building on lower Main street will be completed sometime in the sweet-by-and-by. It was whispered that a man was seen at work there several days.

SENATOR ALDRICH, whose daughter married Rockefeller's son, sent Rockefeller a 30-cent telegram and had it charged to the government. If Mr. Rockefeller had been compelled to pay the toll he might have advanced oil another half-cent a gallon to get even, and Senator Aldrich should be thanked, not blamed, for his economical thoughtfulness.

WINCHESTER SALOONISTS.—At Winchester, C. B. George & Bro., filed suit against the Mayor, City Clerk and members of the Council to compel them to grant applicants for saloon licenses. In 1896 every precinct in the city went dry by a large majority, but in 1899 North Winchester voted for saloons. When the saloonists made application for licenses they were refused and these actions are the result.

HISTORY OF HART.—Miss Carrie W. Berry, formerly of this city, one of the associated principals of Campbell-Hagerman College, has written a brief history of the life of Joel T. Hart, Kentucky's eminent sculptor. It is published in the form of a booklet and may be seen at the Lexington Public Library. It is an exceedingly attractive little book and written in admirable style.

ATTENTION.—Take your "Search-light" match tickets to Wm. Sauer's, opposite courthouse.

HOT roast beef and lunch every night at the Central Bar.

A LOCAL LODGE INTERESTED.—About thirty Parisians, members of the Lockhart Lodge, the Paris branch lodge of the National Union, are interested in the closing of the Produce Exchange Banking Co., on Friday, at Cleveland, Ohio, because of its cashier absconding with about $200,000. The National Union's treasurer had $300,000 of its funds on deposit in the institution. There are 65,000 members to the National Union, and the treasurer is under $400,000 bond. The absconding bank cashier confesses that dealing in margins was the cause of his downfall. The late French Abbott, of this city, was insured in this order and his mother, Mrs. Sallie Pullen, received $1,000.

'PHONE 257.—I have accepted the agency of the Lexington Steam Laundry. Orders telephoned to 257 will receive prompt attention. Work called for and delivered.

Horse Thief Captured.

The Mt. Olivet Advance, of last Saturday, says: "Sherman Johnson, of Bourbon county, was arrested at Piqua, Thursday morning by Sheriff VanHook, on word from Jos. Hildreth, of Cane Ridge, that Johnson had stolen his horse."

"Johnson is a son of John Johnson, and a grandson of the late Wm. Johnson, of this county. He traded the stolen horse to Thos. Stoker, of near Piqua, and then sold the horse secured from Stoker. He is now in jail, awaiting the arrival of the officers from Bourbon county."

9 CENTS PER YARD.—On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—Jan. 26th, 27th, and 28th, I will place on sale 5,000 yards of Alliance Zephyr Gingham at 9c per yard.

HARRY SIMON.

Blood Hounds.

Efforts are being made by some of the officers and private citizens to purchase blood-hounds, mention of which has been made in these columns already. There is no question but that they are a great convenience in running down thieves and criminals, and it is to be hoped that those interesting themselves in the matter, will be successful. It is often the case that when the hounds are put on the trail of thieves, either the goods or the criminals are found. And in many cases, they are the cause of the criminal making an open confession of their guilt.

WHITE GOODS.—Just received a full line of nobby White Goods. HARRY SIMON.

Weather For February.

February will be a month of storms—violent storms and blizzards. Wind, rain, sleet and snow will prevail, covering the entire country. The precipitation during the month will be the heaviest known in years, and will consist principally of sleet and snow, accompanied at times by heavy gales. The rainfall will be light and of short duration, except over the Southern and Gulf States.

Heavy rain will fall at times, but of short duration, being followed by sleet and snow and cold waves. Rain of short duration, turning to sleet and heavy snow, followed by cold waves, over the States of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Illinois and Pennsylvania. Blizzards, icy blasts and intense cold will cause suffering to man and beast and serious delay to traffic from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico, causing much distress in every State. Traffic over the East, West, North, Southwest and Northwest will at times be almost suspended by several blizzards and extreme cold, and traffic over the South will be seriously crippled by rain, sleet and snow.

Between the 22d and 26th great storms of a violent nature will sweep over the entire country, causing destruction in its path.

SILK.—This is a good time to buy your Silks for waists, skirts, petticoats, while Harry Simon is offering $1.25 Taffeta Silk, warranted not to tear, at 60c per yard.

—Mrs. Woodford Spears and children will leave this week for Florida, where they will join Capt. Ed. Spears and family, and from there they will go to Cuba.

—Mrs. Curtis P. Brown and two children, Virginia and Stewart, of Wheeling, W. Va., are with Mrs. B.'s uncle, James Stewart, for a ten day's visit, at the Windsor Hotel.

—Mr. John W. Throckmorton, the popular L. & N. conductor, who has been ill at his home in Lexington, for several weeks, has resumed his regular run between Lexington and Cincinnati.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham Joyce, of this county, are spending a few days with Mrs. James P. Headley, in Lexington. Mrs. Joyce has been suffering with a sprained wrist but is now better.

Late News.

At noon yesterday, an explosion in the shaft of Harwick Coal Co., near Cheswick, Pa., cut off the escape of 150 to 180 miners.

W. J. Bryan accepts the invitation and will take part in the Goebel memorial exercises at Frankfort, Wednesday, February 2d.

The Legislature.

The House passed the McDonald Bill increasing from $125 to $175 the per capita allowance for the Confederate Home.

The Owensboro Merchant's Association has sent a communication to the Legislature denouncing the State Fair and its management.

The next important matter to be disposed of by the General Assembly will be the passage of the Butler Bill, extending the common school term from five to six months, and the passage of the Hefflin Bill submitting a constitutional amendment to impose an educational qualification upon voters.

STRAYED.—My Cow. Description: A reddish, yellow Jersey, with a knot under right eye. Anyone finding same, will please notify me.

Fresh Fruit Exhibit.

According to reports that have reached M. F. Johnson, of Fern Creek, the President of the Kentucky State Horticultural Society, the State never had a more flattering prospect at this time of the year for a fine crop of fruit than it now has. Mr. Johnson, who is also Chairman of the Horticultural Committee of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, in taking advantage of this flattering prospect to arrange for a fresh fruit exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition for the entire World's Fair period after fruit begins to ripen. The exhibit will be opened promptly on April 30, with cold storage fruit, 100 barrels of apples and pears having been stored during the last fall. Mr. Johnson has just issued a circular to fruit growers and persons interested in the exhibit in every county in the State, asking that an organization be perfected at once, so every county may be given representation in the fresh fruit display. After organizations are perfected minute instructions are to be issued. All shipping charges are to be paid by the Kentucky Exhibit Association.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

To Prove what Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of this paper May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

The mild and immediate effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root will set your whole system right, and the best proof of this is a trial.

14 EAST 120th ST., NEW YORK CITY.
DEAR SIR: Oct. 15th, 1903.
"I had been suffering severely from kidney trouble. All symptoms were on hand; my former strength and power had left me; I could hardly drag myself along. Even my mental capacity was giving out, and often I wished to die. It was then I saw an advertisement of yours in a New York paper, but would not have paid any attention to it, had it not promised a sworn guarantee with every bottle of your medicine, assuring that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable, and does not contain any harmful drugs. I am seventy years and four months old, and with a good conscience I can recommend Swamp-Root to all sufferers from kidney troubles. Four members of my family have been using Swamp-Root for four different kidney diseases, with the same good results."
With many thanks to you, I remain,
Very truly,
ROBERT BERNER.

You may have a sample bottle of this famous kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, sent free by mail, postpaid, by which you may test its virtues for such disorders as kidney, bladder and uric acid diseases, poor digestion, being obliged to pass

EDITORIAL NOTE.—So successful is Swamp-Root in promptly curing even the most distressing cases of kidney, liver or bladder troubles, that to prove its wonderful merits, you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. HIS PHILOSOPHY.

Wish I had nothing else to do but set around and laugh at things! The whole world's funny through an' through, from you an' me clear up to kings. You think that I am gay an' glad with not a thing to worry me; I think the outlook's pretty bad, but your good fortune I can see. Each woman sees a hat or dress that she thinks should have been for her. An' take it by an' large, I guess this world keeps gettin' funnier.

Each town is full o' candidates that thinks they are the people's choice. All over these United States they're harkin' for the callin' voice; An' each one wishes he'd the chance the other fellow has to win. But, after all, it's just a dance—some goin' out, some comin' in. We know the choice seeks the man, an' that is why we never fail. To try to hit upon a plan to leave a mighty well-made trail.

You worry when the agent calls to get his little monthly rent. His heart with disappointment falls if he finds you without a cent; We read about some millionaire who sings the joy of bein' poor. An' know of poor men everywhere who scheme to make their fortunes sure. The man who has an appetite must be content plain things to eat; The rich man's in a sorry plight—his appetite he must entreat.

Wish I had nothin' else to do but set around and laugh at things! I'd chuckle for awhile at you, an' then I'd sneaker at the kings. You think it would be very fine to loiter around an' wear a crown; The king is anxious to resign an' lay the heavy headgear down. I'd laugh at them that wants to walk; I'd laugh at them that wants to ride. At them that talks or doesn't talk—I if I'm only satisfied.

The Salvation of Daniel

By WINIFRED DOLAN

MRS. TRAPAUD was in high good feather; the bay mare and foal had fetched 130 golden sovereigns between them. Moreover, she had only given 80 guineas for the mare. Who will be astonished, therefore, that she found the news of her bargain quite an agreeable adjunct to her breakfast that morning?

Mrs. Trapaud was a woman of some humor; when her husband died she met a friend—a man also of some humor—who knew as all the world knew and as Mrs. Trapaud had never pretended to hide, that the marriage had been the reverse of happy. He looked at her weeds with a comprehending smile. "Get your divorce at last?" he said. "Yes, and in the higher courts, too," she replied.

Mrs. Trapaud was always equal to any occasion.

When Trapaud died his widow carried on the work of his life; she continued to breed his horses. Not so much, be it understood, from any touching sympathy with the dear departed as from a sound conviction that it was in her to make the thing pay. And she did.

It was a strange household composed of antiquated serving men and women who had been begotten and born on the estate and in whom the last expiring breath of feudalism lingered as though dying hard. Trapaud left no heir, and these farm and stable hands, these domestic serving maids, were Mrs. Trapaud's children. She doted and doted on them when they required it, she rubbed their backs when the rheumatism got importunate; she scolded, she praised, she rewarded and blamed—and they loved her.

But as in every fold there is one black sheep, so in this patriarchal family there was one strangling. Daniel—he had no other name—had not been born and bred on the estate; he had not even first seen light in the village; no, not within ten leagues of it, the gossips said. He came from practically nowhere; it was so very far away. On winter nights, when the evenings were long and dull, the younger ones—for age was a mere matter of comparison in the Trapaud household—would coax old Mrs. Goodheart to tell again the story of how Daniel first came to the hall.

"It was a wild, black night, jest sich a one as this," the old housekeeper would begin.

"And the wind were howling in the chimney, we knows," would interpolate an irresponsible voice.

"Will ye never learn to hold yer tongue then and not interrupt the story?" a chorus of voices would protest, and then, Mrs. Goodheart having duly allowed herself to be appeased, the story would drag out its slow, familiar existence, punctuated with "ohs" and "ahs" and "theer nows" that had become sanctified by custom into a sort of rite. But the reader who does not know what 365 days spent on a midland horse farm situated a good 20 miles from anywhere on the map can be like would hardly appreciate the art with which Daniel's history was told, so we will offer a brief and more modern up to day sketch that shall state the plain matter in a nutshell.

One Christmas eve a quarter of a century ago the hospitable glare of a fire that not only could roast an ox, but was actually doing so, attracted a little ragged fellow who was tramping along the high road in search of a night's lodging. One of the keepers found him in the fir plantation and dragged him after him till they stood in the glare of the firelight before Trapaud, his wife, and the assembled household. Questioned, the little fellow said his name was Daniel; he was a foundling and had been put out to service with a drunken carpenter, from whom he had run away. He had got as far north as this to a barge along the canals and had worked at whatever came to his hand for all the food and lodging that charity had not given him. Trapaud liked the lad's face and took him into his service. He was honest and industrious, he had risen by slow degrees, and now for seven years he had been butler at the hall. Daniel took a pathetic pleasure in hearing his own story recited, it made him feel a kind of hero, but there was always the ever-present ache at his heart that he bought his proud position at the cost of love and fear. He was never quite one of them, but a thing apart as a man who does not know his own surname must ever be.

Mrs. Trapaud was habitually careful about money, never leaving carelessly about any sums however small. She never trusted any of her people, but she knew the value of the axiom concerning the open door. On this particular morning, however, she rang the bell for breakfast to be cleared while the 130 sovereigns were still lying glistening in the sun upon the table.

Daniel answered the summons as usual and began to clear away. As he did so his eye fell on the money and he gave a little quick, sharp gasp. Mrs. Trapaud heard it and turned to look at him.

"Yes," she said, "it's a lot of money, isn't it, Daniel? One hundred and thirty pounds. The bay mare and her foal fetched it."

Daniel murmured some reply, and went on removing the breakfast things. Mrs. Trapaud rose, folded her napkin leisurely, and gathering up the gold pieces, crossed to the fireplace and put them in a tidy little heap on the mantelpiece. Then she walked into the conservatory that opened out of the room to see how her pointsettia was coming on. Suddenly her pulses stopped and her heart stood still to listen. She heard a voice distinctly speaking in a weird, mad whisper from the breakfast room behind.

"Make a man rich for life," it said, and repeated the phrase like a litany. She turned.

Daniel was standing near the mantelpiece, his face white as death, great drops of sweat standing out upon his brow. His fingers twitched nervously, his eyeballs were painfully distended. Covetousness, avarice, greed, were writ large upon his countenance. He looked horrible. Instinctively Mrs. Trapaud shrank back among the greenery to watch.

"Make a man rich for life!" reiterated Daniel with a curious sibilant sound. "Make a man rich for life—rich for life!" With one swift look in the direction of the conservatory he put out his hand, and with stealthy touch noiselessly took the gold. You could have heard a pin drop. Mrs. Trapaud stepped quickly forward.

"Daniel, what are you doing? Put that money down."

She spoke sharply—peremptorily. Daniel turned. An ugly look came over his face; he was dangerous.

"Put it down this minute," she said. "Make a man rich for life," he muttered, backing to the door.

"Daniel, are you mad? Put it down at once, I say."

She had reentered the room now and her hand was on the bell. With a quick movement Daniel reached out to the sideboard and seized a knife; in his other fist he still clutched the gold.

"I see," she said quietly. "Then we have been housing a thief and a murderer for five and 20 years."

The knife dropped from his hand. A violent trembling shook him in every limb, the wild, weird look died out of his eyes, and he stood for a moment gazing dazedly at the money in his clinched palm.

"Daniel, put it down!"

He crossed to the mantelpiece as though in a dream and put the money back where he had found it in the spirit of a little child. Then he stood there silent, his head bowed upon his breast.

"It is the first time I have ever known you drunk, Daniel," said Mrs. Trapaud, slowly. "Do not ever let me see you drunk again or I shall have to dismiss you. Now you may go."

He turned and walked slowly to the door. He had his back to her, but she could see his shoulders heave. Presently he turned again, his face still bowed upon his breast.

"God bless 'ee, mistress," he said brokenly and went out.—The Tattler.

BEAUTIFYING A STATE.

One Californian Bought Beautiful Birds and Let Them Loose in Country Around Pasadena.

Whenever I see any of these propagandas for beautifying a city," said Senator Perkins, of California, the other night, according to the New York Times, "I always think of the work done to beautify the state of California by a citizen of Altadena, which is hard by Pasadena. The man's name is Andrew McNally, and when he came to California there were few birds at Altadena, and those few were hardly what we would call beautiful. McNally made up his mind that the land needed birds, so he built him an aviary and imported many hundreds of his feathered friends. Once a year he would open the doors of his aviary and let the young birds fly whithersoever they would, and in a short time, the whole country was populated with feathered creatures of every variety of hue and song. His example was followed by Joseph Grinnell and Mrs. Grinnell, both of whom are ardent ornithologists, so that now the country around Pasadena is a garden spot for birds of beautiful plumage. Many of the birds that were imported came from Japan and China. So you see there are more ways than one of beautifying a city or a state."

Too Much Indeed.

"What's the trouble, Harker?"
"Too much raising."
"How's that?"
"Why, I raised the car window for a very pretty young lady and then she raised her eyes."
"That was nice."
"Then I raised my hat and her father came in and raised cane."—Chicago Daily News.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First. The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its patrons which is now being offered by that most popular railroad, the "Henderson Route," which road has been rightly termed the "Kentuckian's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has just been announced from the general office of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night runs between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have just been received from the shops and are a revelation in the car builder's art.

The cars are strictly up-to-date, first-class "palaces of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises which are promised the public for the World's Fair travel by the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are solidly constructed and are furnished with sixty-four reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition to smoking and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in leather. They are also fitted up with triple tracks, which feature will do away with the jerk, jar and strain incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach, and insures a smooth, comfortable ride. This should prove more than a popular feature in train service to the traveling public, and you can only suggest that in traveling you "get the Henderson Route's habit."

BRIDGING AN INLAND SEA.

Stupendous Engineering.

We have in times past been told much of wonderful feats in railroad building, and much has been written of the engineering skill and daring that directed the course of the iron horse across the plains and mountains that lie between the Missouri river and the Pacific Ocean. "In the grand and magnificent undertaking, the Union Pacific-Central Pacific has never been equaled. The energy and perseverance with which the work was urged forward, and the rapidity with which it was executed, are without a parallel in history," were the statements of the special government commissioners to the Secretary of the Interior.

Thirty-five years ago there was no time to spend on work similar to that which has just been completed. Then the world was watching while the builders of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific raced for supremacy. It was a magnificent contest, but nowadays the owners of the road have been brought to consider other problems. One of these necessitated the solution of the grade question and the straightening of the track.

One of the most interesting and difficult feats of railroad engineering ever undertaken has just been completed by the owners of "The Overland Route," Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroad—the building of a bridge across the Great Salt Lake between Ogden, Utah, and Lucin, Nevada.

The work being practically completed, the new track was formally opened on Thanksgiving Day when Mr. E. H. Harriman, head of the Harriman Lines, and a big party of railroad magnates partook of Thanksgiving Day dinner in the middle of Great Salt Lake.

The Ogden-Lucin "Cut Off" is 102 miles in length, 72 miles on land and 30 miles on trestle work and fills over 200 acres of Great Salt Lake. It presents a practically level track except for a short distance on the west end near Lucin, Nevada, where a slight grade is encountered.

The use of this cut off will throw out the trans-continental traffic over the old line from Ogden to Lucin, Nevada, around the Lake. This strip of track is one of the most expensive of the Harriman system, the maximum grade over the long Promontory hill is 104 feet to the mile and helper engines are always necessary. The elimination of the use of these engines will mean the saving of at least $1,500,000 a day in operating expenses and also a saving of several hours in running time.

Active work was commenced in 1902, and thus the most impossible task was completed in about 22 months. The last pile was driven during the last week of October. This great work has cost over $4,200,000.00.

The cut off runs from Ogden west 15 miles over level country before reaching the lake proper, then across the east arm of the Lake 9 miles to Promontory. Then five miles of solid rock bed and then 19 miles west over the west arm of the Lake toward Lucin and thence across the Great Salt Lake Desert to Lucin, Nevada. Across the east arm of the Lake, it will be almost a continuous fill supported by trestle. Near the middle of this will be a gap of 600 feet of open trestle work left for the waters of the Bear river which flow into the arm of the Lake.

Across Promontory Point runs five miles of solid rock bed and here difficult work was encountered. A cut of 3,000 feet long in sand and rock of barren bluff being necessary. At this point, the most beautiful on this inland sea, surveys have been made for an immense summer resort.

Across the west arm of the Lake is 11 miles of trestle work with a fillin approach at each end of four miles. In completing the work of spanning the Lake, one great difficulty was encountered across the east arm by the settling of filling and trestle work. This was caused by the salt of the flow of the Bear river having collected for centuries over the bottom of the Lake and having formed a salt wall of 100 feet. It took 1,000 tons of rock in piles which appear to have reached the bottom of the Lake proper and which has resulted in a firm and splendid rock bed.

In a speech which he made at the Alta Club, Salt Lake City, on the eve of the opening of the "Cut Off," Mr. Harriman said:

"The completion of this undertaking will reduce the distance between San Francisco and Salt Lake by 41 miles, and will eventually bring the time between the two cities down to 22 hours.

"It is intended to reduce the running time from Salt Lake to Chicago to 38 hours, and put passengers into New York in 56 hours from Salt Lake.

"These two railroads—Union Pacific and Southern Pacific—have spent in the last three years somewhere near $130,000,000 in repairs and improvements aside from the expenses of operation or maintenance."

Not Without Distinction.

A note of family pride was struck in the conversation between three small Reading boys the other day. The parts played by their respective grandfathers in the civil war were being depicted by two of the boys in vivid colors. The career of each, it seemed, had been halted by confinement in southern prisons, and it was on the latter fact that the boys laid particular stress. The third youth, unable to achieve these recollections with any military achievement of his own forefathers, preserved an anxious silence for a while, and then, not to be outdone, said disparagingly: "Why, that's not so much. My Uncle Bill was in jail a long time, and he was never in the army at all."—Philadelphia Ledger.

When we introduced this remarkable grass three years ago, little did we dream it would be the most talked of grass in America, the biggest, quickest, hay producer on earth, but this has come to pass.

Ag. Editors wrote about it, Agr. College Professors lectured about it, Agr. Institute Orators talked about it, while in the farm house by the quiet fireside, in the corner grocery, in the village post-office, at the creamery, at the depot, in fact wherever farmers gathered, Salzer's Billion Dollar Grass, that wonderful grass, good for 5 to 14 tons per acre, and lots of pasture besides, is always a theme worthy of the farmer's voice.

A. Walford, Westboro Farms, Pa., writes: "I have 60 acres in Salzer's Alfalfa Clover. It is immense. I cut three crops this season and have lots of pasture besides."

RUBBER! RUBBER!

Countess Diane Ogier d'Ivry, the beautiful young daughter of Count Ogier d'Ivry, died in a hospital in Paris recently as the result of being injured while out driving in the guise of a man. Her identity was concealed for a time by the fact that she wore a man's clothes.

A pony cart, driven apparently by a handsomely dressed young man, accompanied by a groom, collided with a heavy vehicle near the Avenue Bois du Boulogne.

The handsome driver was removed to a hospital and placed in the male ward. The doctors were preparing for an operation when they found the injured person to be a woman. She was removed to the female ward and was identified as the daughter of Count Ogier d'Ivry. A medical examination disclosed that her skull was fractured in three places and she died the next morning.

The countess was 20 years of age and her blonde hair was cut short. It is explained that she was in the habit of assuming male attire to avoid attracting the attention of men.

Successfully Grafted a New Lip.

Dr. C. S. Durand, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has just completed a surgical operation which has caused considerable comment. The operation was performed upon Charles Skillern. The dreaded malady, cancer, had destroyed the whole lower lip. Dr. Durand took the case under treatment and successfully grafted a new lip from the inner side of Mr. Skillern's cheeks. Mr. Skillern was out on the streets after a confinement of a few weeks, and the results of the operation are scarcely noticeable.

FOR INJURED ANIMALS.

Book of West Philadelphia Physician Which Will Deal with Treatment of Common Accidents.

A West Philadelphia physician is writing an interesting and valuable little book that he intends to call "First Aid to Injured Animals." The book deals with the treatment of the common accidents that happen to dogs and cats and horses. It shows how 50 per cent. of the deaths that occur among domestic animals are due to the mistaken treatment that these animals receive in the interim between their falling ill and the veterinary surgeon's arrival. The physician said the other day: "Take the case of a valuable dog, for instance. Dogs frequently choke. A bone, a nail or a piece of tin gets in their throat and there is great danger of their dying before the surgeon comes. Many of them do die, but there is no reason for this. For it is easy, without the slightest danger of being bitten, to put the hand in the mouth of a dog and to draw out or push down the obstruction that is killing him. A bandage—a handkerchief or towel will do—is passed between the teeth and over the upper jaw, and in a similar way another bandage is passed between the teeth and over the under jaw. One person holding the ends of two bandages keeps the dog's mouth wide open; a second puts his fingers down the animal's throat and relieves him. There are hundreds of emergencies like this one—just as dangerous and just as easily treated. In my book it is my purpose to describe all these emergencies and thus I hope to save many animals' lives."

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Other Prominent Physicians Use and Endorse Pe-ru-na.

DR. LLEWELLYN Jordan, Medical Examiner of the U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."

A constantly increasing number of physicians prescribe Peruna in their practice. It has proven its merits so thoroughly that even the doctors have overcome their prejudice against so-called patent medicines and recommend it to their patients.

Peruna occupies a unique position in medical science. It is the only internal systemic catarrh remedy known to the medical profession to-day. Catarrh, as everyone will admit, is the cause of one-half the disease which afflicts mankind. Catarrh and catarrhal diseases afflict one-half of the people of United States.

Robert R. Roberts, M. D., Washington, D. C., writes:

"Through my own experience as well as that of many of my friends and acquaintances who have been cured or relieved of catarrh by the use of Hartman's Peruna, I can confidently recommend it to those suffering from such disorders, and have no hesitation in prescribing it to my patients."—Robert R. Roberts.

Dr. R. Robbins, Muskogee, I. T., writes:

"Peruna is the best medicine I know of for coughs and to strengthen a weak stomach and to give appetite. Besides prescribing it for catarrh, I have ordered it for weak and debilitated people, and have not had a patient but said it helped him. It is an excellent medicine and it fits so many cases."

"I have a large practice, and have a chance to prescribe your Peruna. I hope you may live long to do good to the sick and the suffering."

Dr. M. C. Gee, writes from 513 Jones St., San Francisco, Cal.:

"Peruna has performed so many wonderful cures in San Francisco that I am convinced that it is a valuable remedy. I have frequently advised its use for women, as I find it insures regular and painless menstruation, cures leucorrhoea and ovarian troubles, and builds up the entire system. I also consider it one of the finest catarrh remedies I know of."

—M. C. Gee, M. D.

Catarrh is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does.

Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve-centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. Then catarrh is permanently cured.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

PARTY LINE TELEPHONE.

A Squabble Between Subscribers That Was Settled Very Speedily and Amicably.

Washington has thousands of party line telephones. The best of feeling does not always prevail between those on the party lines when both want to use the phone at the same time, says the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle. A prominent politician is on a party line with a doctor. He was in great haste to get a friend over the phone and began ringing and shouting "hello."

The other subscriber wanted to use his telephone at the same time, with the result they were soon saying harsh things to each other.

"Who are you?" demanded the politician.

"I'm Dr. Blank," was the answer.

"Oh, pardon me, doctor, you can have the line. It weren't for you I couldn't make a living."

"Well, who are you?" asked the doctor.

"I'm Jones, the undertaker," was the answer.

LASTING RELIEF.

J. W. Walls, Superintendent of Streets of Lebanon, Ky., says:

"My nightly rest was broken, owing to irregular action of the kidneys. I was suffering intensely from severe pains in the small of my back and through the kidneys and annoyed by painful passages of abnormal secretions. No amount of doctoring relieved this condition. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I experienced quick and lasting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove a blessing to all sufferers from kidney disorders who will give them a fair trial."

Barnstable Fair.

An annual fair at Barnstable, England, has been held for hundreds of years. It was originally held in July, but the time was altered to September by a charter granted by Queen Mary. Barnstable fair is inaugurated with a ceremony in the town hall, where a special meeting of the town council is held and spiced ale and toast (prepared in the council chamber by the band and mace bearers) are dispensed to all who crowd the building. Appropriate toasts are proposed and speeches made by the local member of parliament and others, after which the mayor proceeds in procession to three points of the town, at each of which is read his proclamation opening the fair and enjoining all concerned to keep the peace during its continuance. Not until this ceremony has been performed can the business and fun of the fair proceed. On the inauguration of the fair a huge stuffed white glove, adorned with flowers, is thrust on a pole from one of the upper windows of the town hall and remains in evidence during the continuance of the festival as the symbol of open handed welcome.

Went Back on His Authority.

Freeman, the historian, was naturally familiar in the spirit to readers of the Saturday Review. In the flesh Mr. Leslie Stephen's single meeting with the historian was in the nature of a collision. "I came in contact with him only once, and at a later period. He wrote a life of Alfred for the Dictionary of National Biography under my editorship, but declined to do more because we had a difference of opinion as to whether Athelstane should be spelled with an 'A.' That was, I confess, a question to which I was culpably indifferent, but I had taken competent advice, and my system (I forget what it was) had been elsewhere sanctioned by the great historian Stubbs. Now, as Freeman was never tired of asserting the infallibility of Stubbs, I innocently thought that I might take refuge behind so eminent an authority. The result was that for once Freeman blasphemed Stubbs and refused to co-operate any longer in an unscholarlike enterprise."

The Druggist Lost in Ibsen.

Some one in Scandinavia unearthed the report of the examiners on Dr. Ibsen's papers at his examination for the degree of bachelor. It runs as follows: Norwegian, good; Latin prose, good; Latin essay, fairly good; Latin conversation, moderate; Greek, bad; arithmetic, bad; German, very good; French, good; religious knowledge, good; history and geography, good; Hebrew, good; geometry, good. General remarks: A young man not to be despised. In spite of many "goods," however, Ibsen was plowed owing to his deficiencies in Greek and arithmetic. He aspired in those days to be a pharmaceutical chemist and, failing to satisfy the examiners, had to seek some other opening in life.

The Primitive Clock.

A naturalist, while visiting Great Saugir, one of those islands of the Indian ocean known as the Celebes or Spice Islands, found a curious time recorder lodged at the house of a rajah. Two bottles were firmly lashed together and fixed in a wooden frame. A quantity of black sand ran from one bottle into the other in just half an hour, and when the upper bottle was empty the frame was reversed. Twelve short sticks, marked with notches from one to twelve, were hung upon a string. A hook was placed between the stick bearing the number of notches corresponding to the hour last struck and the one to be struck next. The sentry announced the time by striking the hours on a large gong.

Rebuked.

Hoffmann, the German physicist, arrived in Glasgow late one Saturday night and on Sunday morning went to call on Lord Kelvin. The doorbell was answered by a woman servant, whom Hoffmann asked if Sir William was at home. The servant answered, "Sir, he most certainly is not." Hoffmann then asked, "Could you tell me where I could find him?" "Sir," she answered, "you will find him at church, where you ought to be!"

"Do It To-Day."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demolishing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschree's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

PUBLIC SALE OFDesirable Home

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.
F. M. HURST'S WIDOW AND HEIRS ON PETITION.

NOTICE OF SALE.

The undersigned Special Commissioner in the above styled proceeding will, on the premises to be sold, on about the hour of 11 a. m., expose to public sale the following real estate, located in Bourbon County, Kentucky, near the town of Millersburg, to-wit:

Tract No. 1, being the home place of deceased, bounded as follows: Beginning at stake No. 1, corner to Annie C. Barnes, and running S 41° 14' W 64.41 poles to stake No. 2, at a branch in John W. Bedford's line; thence with his line S 40° 1/2' E 31 1/2 poles to No. 3, corner to Bedford and Walker's line; thence running with said Walker's line S 35° 1/2' E 68.49 poles to No. 4, a stake in the north-east bank of the branch corner to said Barnes; thence N 54° 1/2' W 29.01 poles to the beginning, containing thirteen and a half acres; also a strip of ground beginning at Louis Anderson's water-gap and extending along his line to the line of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, fifteen feet in width throughout to said railroad.

Tract No. 2 bounded by said railroad, by the lot of Louis Anderson, by the Maysville and Lexington turnpike, and by the lot of Amanda Batson, reserving in favor of the owner of lot No. 1, and in favor of Annie L. Barnes an open passway over the last named parcel of land, which passway is not to be obstructed by any gate or other obstruction from the railroad aforesaid to said turnpike, said passway now being piked. Tract No. 2 also embraces an additional parcel of ground described as follows: Beginning with corner on Maysville and Lexington pike between F. M. Hurst and John A. Gorman and Luna B. Gorman; thence North eighteen feet with said pike; thence west to the Maysville branch of the L. & N. Railroad; thence south with said railroad seven feet to the corner of F. M. Hurst and Jno. A. and Luna B. Gorman; thence east to the place of beginning.

Tract No. 1 has thereon a comfortable frame dwelling house of eight rooms etc., two porches, a stable, carriage and buggy house, workshop, granary and various other out-buildings, all in good condition; tract No. 2 has two buildings thereon.

This property is located about half a mile from Millersburg, on the Lexington and Maysville turnpike and the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, convenient to the postoffice, depot, churches, schools, etc.

The property will be offered in the two tracts above indicated and then as a whole, and the bid or bids aggregating the most money will be accepted.

Terms.—The property will be sold upon credits of six and twelve months for equal parts of the purchase money, the purchaser to execute bonds with good surety, to be approved by the undersigned, payable to the undersigned, and bearing 6 per cent interest from date of sale.
